- Are you a Father, Stepfather, Father figure or Father-to-be?
- Do you want to learn new ways to engage with your children?
*(Ages 0 to 24 years old)
- Do you want to improve the communication with your co-parent?
- Are you applying for jobs and need a resume, cover letter and/or interviewing skills?
- Are you required to take parenting classes?
- Do you owe child support?

If you answered YES to any of those questions, you qualify to participate in the UCC Fatherhood FIRE program, which provides life-changing benefits to all participants.

 Upon completion of the Fatherhood FIRE program, Milwaukee County Child Support Services will generously offer you a 50% reduction in state interest, or receipt and disburse fees on your Milwaukee County Child support case.*

OUR APPROACH: Focused on helping fathers, stepfathers, father-figures and soon-to-be-fathers in the Milwaukee area achieve their fullest potential by providing them with the tools needed to be successful in their daily lives and relationships. Most importantly, in their biggest role of all, being a present father.

THREE PROGRAM AREAS

The Fatherhood FIRE Program offers three integrated core program services:

1. Responsible Parenting

- Child development, non-violent discipline, and skills to play with child
- How to establish positive communication with children
- Skills for effective co-parenting and how to become an involved father
- The importance of financially providing for children

2. Healthy Relationships

- Communication and conflict resolution
- Knowledge of the benefits of marriage

3. Economic Stability

- Resume development and interview skills
- Employment opportunities and career advancement
- Internships and other job training programs
